Outlaw Americana: Wade Crawford and the Country Trash Make a Date in DHS

Wade Crawford and the Country Trash will play anywhere, for anyone.

In the midst of gigs all over California, and time spent recording their first full-length album, he and drummer Terence Dunn are playing a show at Playoffs Sports Bar in Desert Hot Springs on Saturday, May 18.

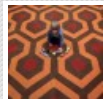

When I ask the 28 year-old Banning resident, during a recent phone interv...

A League of Their Own: Disabled Youths Get a Chance to Play Ball in Coachella

Monday, April 29, 2013 | Johnny Flores Jr.

Javier Avila and Calani Raceles are two young men with mental challenges doing the unimaginable—playing baseball.

"At first, my son didn't even want to show up. He couldn't catch a ball, let alone hold a bat. Through this program, his hand-eye coordination skills have improved, and he can do all thos...
